Case No. 14-cr-3571-LAB

UNITED STATES' MOTIONS FOR:

(1) FINGERPRINT EXEMPLARS;
(2) RECIPROCAL DISCOVERY;
(3) AND LEAVE TO FILE
FURTHER MOTIONS

TOGETHER WITH STATEMENT OF FACTS AND MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

Date: January 26, 2015
Time: 2 PM

20 The plaintiff, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, by and through its counsel,
21 Laura E. Duffy, United States Attorney, and Julia A. Cline, Special Assistant United
22 States Attorney, and hereby files its Motions for Fingerprint Exemplars, Reciprocal
23 Discovery, and Leave to File Further Motions. These Motions are based upon the 24 files and records of the case, together with the attached statement of facts and 25 memorandum of points and authorities.

2 STATEMENT OF THE CASE

3 On or about December 11, 2014, defendant Carlos Aguirre-Perez (“Defendant”)
4 waived Indictment and entered a plea of not guilty to a single-count criminal
5 Information, charging him with Removed Alien Found in the United States, in
6 violation of Title 8, United States Code, Sections 1326 (a) and (b).

7 II

8 STATEMENT OF FACTS

9 On or about November 14, 2014, at approximately 2:00 a.m., Defendant was
10 apprehended approximately five miles east of the Otay Mesa, California Port of entry
11 and eight miles north of the United States-Mexico international border. Record
12 checks reveal that Defendant has been previously deported and removed from the 13 United States, and has not received permission to enter or remain in the United States.

14 III.

15 ARGUMENT

16 A. MOTION FOR THE TAKING OF FINGERPRINT EXEMPLARS

17 Part of the United States’ burden of proof in this case is to satisfy the jury that
18 Defendant was an alien, previously removed from the United States, who lacked
19 permission to reenter the United States. To make that showing, the United States may 20 call an expert in fingerprint identification to match Defendant’s fingerprints to 21 relevant evidence. The most efficient and conclusive manner of establishing this
22 information is to permit the expert witness himself to take a set of Defendant's
23 fingerprints for comparison.

24 A defendant’s fingerprints are not testimonial evidence. See Schmerber v.
25 California, 384 U.S. 757 (1966). Using identifying physical characteristics, such as
26 fingerprints, does not violate a defendant's Fifth Amendment right self-incrimination.
27 United States v. Velarde-Gomez, 269 F.3d 103, 1031 (9th Cir. 2001). The United 28

1 States therefore requests that this Court order that Defendant make himself available
2 for fingerprinting by the United States.

3 B. MOTION FOR RECIPROCAL DISCOVERY

4 The discovery provided to Defendant, at his request, includes documents and
5 objects which are discoverable under Rule 16(a)(1)(E). Consequently, the United
6 States is entitled to discover from Defendant any books, papers, documents, data,
7 photographs, tangible objects, buildings, or places, or copies or portions of any of 8 these items, that are in Defendant's possession, custody, or control and which 9 Defendant intends to use in Defendant's case in chief. See Fed. R. Crim. P.
10 16(b)(1)(A).

11 The United States further requests that it be permitted to inspect and copy or 12 photograph any results or reports of physical or mental examinations and of scientific 13 tests or experiments made in connection with this case, which are in the possession or 14 control of Defendant, which Defendant intends to introduce as evidence in chief at the 15 trial, or which were prepared by a witness whom Defendant intends to call as a
16 witness. Because the United States will comply with Defendant's requests for delivery
17 of reports of examinations, the United States is entitled to the items listed above under 18 Rule 16(b)(1) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The United States also 19 requests a written summary of the names, anticipated testimony, and bases for 20 opinions of experts Defendant intends to call at trial under Rules 702, 703, and 705 of 21 the Federal Rules of Evidence.

22 The United States also requests that the Court make such order as it deems
23 necessary under Rules 16(d)(1) and (2) to ensure that the United States receives the 24 discovery that it is entitled. Rule 26.2 requires the production of prior statements of 25 all witnesses, except Defendant's. The Rule thus provides for the reciprocal 26 production of Jencks statements. The time frame established by the Rule requires the 27 statement to be provided after the witness has testified, as in the Jencks Act.
28 Therefore, the United States hereby requests that Defendant be ordered to supply all

1 prior statements of defense witnesses by a reasonable date before trial to be set by the
2 Court. This order should include any form these statements are memorialized in,
3 including, but not limited to, tape recordings, handwritten or typed notes, or reports.

4 C. LEAVE TO FILE FURTHER MOTIONS

5 The United States respectfully requests the opportunity to file further motions
6 should new information or legal issues arise.

7 IV.

8 CONCLUSION

9 The United States respectfully requests its Motions for Fingerprint Exemplars,
10 Reciprocal Discovery, and Leave to File Further motions be granted.
